LIVES WERE LOST DURING THE STORM

Reports of Many Seamen Perishing With Enormous Damage to Shipping.

DAMAGE THROUGHOUT FLORIDA

Orange Crop Damaged 20 Per Cent.—Many Vessels Drifted to Sea.—Revenue Cutters Searching The Coast.

Tampa, Fla., Oct. 20.—For the first time since Tuesday morning, at 4:20 o'clock, wire communication with the outside world was enjoyed by Tampa this afternoon. The Western Union established two lines to Jacksonville.

Belated reports are coming in from all nearby towns. The most serious damage in thi ssection is to the orange crop, which General Manager Temple, of the Citrus Exchange, says will not be over 20 per cent.

During the height of the storm the sloop Nabob broke loose from her moorings at Marques and was swept to sea. The six men aboard perished.

The American steamer, Herman Frasche, is ashore in three fathoms of water at Crocker's Reef, northeast of Alligator Light. The British steamer Inventor reports having rescued six men from the schooner Marta and ten men from the bark Hugo, both vessels being adrift in the Gulf. The Inventor proceeded to Liverpool with the rescued.

The schooner Huron is safe, but it was necessary to chop away her masts. The Norwegian steamer Fos loaded with naval stores and phosphate, from Tampa to Germany, is wrecked in quick sand at Marqueses. The schooner Vivian was swept to sea and lost. There was no one on board. The schooner Standard broke from her moorings at Masqueses and drifted to sea.

Two of Crew Drowned.

St. Augustine, Fla., Oct. 20.—Harrowing tales of suffering and hardship were brought here today by the five survivors of the schooner William M. Converse, of Philadelphia, who were rescued by a launch from the life saving station. Captain J. J. Miller and two of the crew were drowned when the vessel went to pieces in the hurricane Tuesday afternoon 40 miles below this city. The two men were Charles Anderson, mate, and Frank Hayes, a seaman. Anderson succeeded in reaching the surf near the shore when a portion of the wreck struck him, causing his death.

Fred Miller, aged 13, son of the captain, together with three seamen and the negro steward, reached the shore on bits of wreckage, after fighting through a mile of pounding surf. All the survivors are in a pitable condition.

The Converse was bound for St. Francis, Cuba, with a cargo of coal and ran into the hurricane off Savannah.

Many Missing Vessels.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Some craft adrift in Southern waters are causing anxiety and efforts are being made to locate them. The revenue cutter Forward is looking for the tank steamer Herman Frash, which is adrift off Long Key, Florida. The American barge Dalles went adrift yesterday, just northeast of Jacksonville. The American steamer Florida and barge Louisa sailed from Port Arthur, Texas, October 11, for Norfolk, and have not been reported since. Request was made to the Treasury Department today to have a lookout kept for the missing craft. The revenue cutter Yamacraw will help in the search.

Storm Losses at Miami.

Miami, Fla., Oct. 20.—Communication with the outside world was established today, for the first time since last Sunday. While storm losses in Miami, were not great, reports are coming in of extensive damage to shipping along the northeast coast of Florida. It is reported that there are 35 washouts on the East Coast. Only four deaths in all have been reported as the result of the storm which is said to have been the worst in the history of the Florida coast. The schooner Harry I. Haywood, from Boston, was wrecked off the reefs at boca Ratone and three of the crew were drowned. The others were rescued. Harry T. Gering, of Ghent, Ky., was killed by falling timber at Indian Key.

Scores are reported injured when their homes were demolished by the terrific wind and rain storm.

At Hallandale ten houses, including the school house, were demolished, leaving many homeless. At Indian Key, the Collins plantation was devastated. The workmen were gathered in one house and all were more or less injured. Twenty houses were blown down and the residents, whites and black, were brought to Miami Tuesday.

The damage to the crops in this section of fthe State will not be great.

Big Damage in Florida.

Tampa, Fla., October 20.—With telegraphic communication between this section of Florida an dthe outside world established today, a recapitulation shows a devastation of hundreds of thousands of dollars in the wake of the West Indian storm, which swept across the peninsular Tuesday.

The toll of life so far reported is limited to six seamen, who are supposed to have perished when their vessels broke from mooring at Marqueses and were driven to sea.

Wire communications with points south of Tampa has not yet been established but information indicates that the storm south of Tampa devastated orange groves, levelling the frame houses and doing much damage to small shipping along the inland waterways.

So far reported Key West was the worst sufferer. Passengers coming in on the steamship Olivette this afternoon, report the general damage to that city greater than that of a year ago. The electric plant was wrecked, the wireless station blow down, half a dozen of the largest cigar factories are in ruins, with half a hundred other buildings badly damaged.

FOOTBALL HONORS ARE EVEN

Tie Game Yesterday At Raleigh Between Villa Nova and A. & M.—Touchdown and Goal by Each —How Teams Lined-Up

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 20.—In a hotly contested game here today between the football teams of Villa Nova College, of Pennsylvania, and A. & M., of North Carolina, honors were even, each side scoring a touchdown and kicking a goal.

A. & M. scored a touchdown in the first eight minutes of play, fairly playing Villa Nova off her feet. Neither side scored in the second quarter but in the third quarter on a beautiful forward pass Villa Nova secured a touchdown and kicked goal. The two teams were very evenly matched, the play being all A. & M.'s in the first quarter and all Villa Nova's in the third. In the second and fourth quarters the ball sea-sawed up and down the field. Cool, Voneberstein, Seifert and Stafford starred for A. & M. Near the close of the second quarter Stafford received a severe blow on the head and was not himself again during the rest of the game. Skelton, Kelly and McCormick starred for Villa Nova. Line up is as follows:

McCormick Capt.	r.e. ..... Seifert.
Aroder	r.t. ..... Glenn.
Sheenan	r.g. ..... Floyd.
Curley	c. Bray, Acting. Capt.
Cormey	l.f ..Sykes, Hurtt.

Duffick	r.h.b. ..... Cool.
Killehan	l.h.b. VonEberstein.
Kelly	f.b. ..... Robertson.

Summary: Time of quarters, 11 minutes. Refree, Williams, of Virginia. Umpire, Armstrong, of Yale. Head linesman, Lynch, of Davidson. Time keeper, McLendon. Attendance, 2,000.

TAFT ENDORSES Y. M. C. A.

Addresses Advocates of World-Wide Movement at White House.

Washington, Oct. 20.—President Taft today lent his aid and interest to the movement of extending the world-wide work of the Young Men's Christian Association, when he addressed a conference of nearly 200 prominent business men gathered from the largest cities of the country in the East room of the White House.

The conference which continued in session throughout the afternoon is considered practical means for the expansion of the association work.

President Taft in his address said he was glad that plans were under way to send to foreign countries agencies which will embody the real morality and the high standard representative of Americanism. He declared that in trade relations in the past the traders have been only too ready to take advantage of the foreign producers and get their wares at the lowest figures only to sell them in this country at exorbitantly high prices.

"The Young Men's Christian Association" said President Taft, "has demonstrated its usefulness throughout the United States and we know what we are talking about when we speak of it as an instrument for the elevation of any community in which it is established. Those of us who have looked into it know its practical value. In these days of innate desire for improvements, voiced in eloquence and stirring periods, the danger that we encounter is in having that feeling go off in smoke, because we do not get down to details and practical methods of doing things.

"We are a rich nation, and upon us, because we are a rich nation is the responsibility of using these riches not only for home missions, but for the encouragement of people of all nations. I don't think that money contributed to foreign young Men's Christian Associations is going to take any money that would be contributed to home missions."

TWO KILLED; 25 INJURED.

Wreck at Columbus, O., on Hocking Valley Road—Cause Unknown.

Columbus, O., Oct. 20.—Due to a cause unknown to railway officers, a Hocking Valley passenger train northbound, was derailed south of Harpster, O., today, and two passengers were killed and 25 persons were injured.

The same train was derailed near Lemoyne, O., on September 12th. At that time, as today, it was traveling fast, and was drawn by a new type of heavy locomotive. In the first wreck, the locomotive left the rails and turned over. Today the tender and the coaches were ditched, but the locomotive held the rails.

The dead and injured were taken to Marion, Ohio.

CRIPPEN WITNESS IN LONDON COURT

EXPLAINS USE OF THE POISON

Curious Throng Gazed Upon American on the Stand—Related Sketch of His Career and Relations With Wife.

London, Oct. 20.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen faced his accusers from the witness box today. It was a dramatic moment when the diminutive figure of the American emerged from the comparative isolation of the commodious dock and took a position where he was stared at with intense interest by the curious throng that filled the new Bailey court room. Dr. Crippen was pale, but his composure that has remained since he was first charged with the murder of his actress wife, Belle Elmore, did not desert him.

Under the tactful guidance of his counsel Crippen gave a sketch of his career. He had studied the theories, but had not taken a practical course in surgery. He had performed a post mortem. The drugs which he had purchaser in England he explained, were wholly for his own preparations. He explained the purchase of hyoscin poison which the crown alleges was used to kill Belle Elmore by saying that it was required for use in the treatment of nervous cases and described his formulat in making hyoscin tabloids. Of the hyoscin, which he purchased on January 19th, the doctor said he had used about two-thirds.

The prisoner spoke slowly as he proceeded. He admitted that there was a scar on the body of his wife, four and a half inches in length. It was caused, he said, by an operation 12 years ago. He had never administered hyoscin to his wife. He had no idea whose was the body unearthed in the cellar of his Hilldrop Crescent home. In fact, he was not aware that a body had been buried there until he returned to England under arrest.

Crippen told of the gradual alienation of his wife's affections until the climax was reached in a quarrel on the night of January 31st, last. His wife, he said, had accused him of a lack of attention to Mr. and Mrs. Martinetti, who had spent the evening with them. They quarreled and on the following day his wife went away. This concluded his direct evidence, and court was adjourned.

Earlier in the day the prosecution closed its case and Alfred A. Tobin, for the defense, made his opening address in which he said that the defense would maintain that it could not be proven that Belle Elmore was dead, without which proof his client could not be convicted. The defense then called Crippen to the stand.

BAR HONORED JANITOR.

Deserving Colored Man Highly Regarded by Richmond Lawyers.

Richmond, Va., Oct. 20.—A striking illustration of the respect entertained by white people in the South for worthy colored folk was a meeting of the Richmond Bar Association today for the purpose of taking action relative to the death of Edward S. Brown, colored, who had for 40 years served as janitor and assistant in the State law library. Resolutions were adopted reciting that "Edward S. Brown was a man who well deserved and fully received the unqualified respect and confidence of bench and bar. His faithfulness to his duties, his respectful and respectable demeanor, his kindliness and willingness to oblige were deserving of the highest praise.

"His extraordinary knowledge of legal bibliography and the cheerful readiness with which he gave timely and valuable aid to those seeking decisions of the courts, or unfamiliar with the reports, not only stamped him as a man of real ability, but served in connection with his other qualities to arouse a warm interest in his personal welfare."

The meeting decided to send a floral tribute to the funeral and a representative of the association will attend. It is also probable that a suggestion that a tablet be erected to the memory of the faithful servitor will be carried out.

Halleybury, Ont., Oct. 20.—The balloon Germania was seen this morning flying over this place and disappeared into the forest of Northern Quebec.

SOUTH CAROLINA CITIES.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 20.—Population statistics of the public tonight for the following cities:

Charleston, S. C., 58,833, an increase of 3,026, or 5.4 per cent., over 55,807 in 1900.

Columbia, S. C., 26,319, an increase of 5.211, or 24.7 per cent., over 21,108 in 1900.

DR. WOODROW WILSON RESIGNS

Leaves Presidency of Princeton in Accepting Nomination for Governor of New Jersey—Distinguished Service.

Princeton, N. J., Oct. 20.—Woodrow Wilson, who was nominated by the Democrats for governor of New Jersey, today resigned the presidency of Princeton University and his place will be temporarily filled by John A. Stuart, of New York, the senior trustee of the institution. The day after Dr. Wilson's nomination he indicated that he would resign as the head of Princeton and the action taken today, is therefore, no surprise.

Dr. Wilson, who was present at the meeting today of the board of trustees, presented a letter to the board setting forth that he had been nominated for governor by the Democrats of New Jersey and that he deemed it his duty to accept. He asked that the resignation be accepted at once. The board then unanimously adopted a resolution accepting the resignation with deep regret and a committee was appointed to prepare resolutions for adoption by the board in recognition of Dr. Wilson's distinguished services.

In his letter of resignation, Dr. Wilson referred feelingly to the institution he had so long loved and sought to serve and concluded as follows:

"It is my earnest prayer that the University go forward without halt or hindrance in the path of true scholarship and thoughtful service to the Nation."

Dr. Wilson had been connected with Princeton for 20 years and was made president of the institution in 1902.

President pro tem. Stewart has been a member of the board since 1868. Mr. Stewart is former president of the United States Trust Company, of New York.

The board today reported the receipt of gifts amounting to $250,602 in cash and securities amounting to $126,500 since the June meeting of the board.

COL. M'RAE PRESIDENT.

Elected President of State Agricultural Society—The Fair.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 20.—Tonight the North Carolina Agricultural Society after hearing reports and electing officers adjourned subject to the call of the president to consider issuance of bonds for erecting three or four additional re-inforced concrete buildings like the splendid historical agricultural building opened for this State Fair, at the same time holding an exposition of two weeks or 30 days duration, is to be settled.

The society elected Col. E. F. MacRae, of Robeson county, president to succeed Col. J. H. Currie, of Cumberland, he having declined to serve a fourth term. Col. Joseph E. Pogue was re-elected secretary and S. L. Ratter, treasurer. The election of vice presidents, one for each of the ten judicial districts, was left to the executive committee.

The idea of holding a good roads and automobile Congress in connection with the next Fair, suggested by Col. F. B. Arendell, was commended to the executive committee also Secretary Pogue's sugestion for 30 days, agricultural, horticultural and manufacturers' exposition.

SNOW AT AMARILLO, TEXAS.

Pan Handle Gets First Taste of Winter —Record Breaker.

Fort Worth, Texas, Oct. 20.—Following a heavy rain storm Wednesday night the entire Pan Handle and Plains section of Texas got its first taste of Winter today. In Amarillo snow began falling early in the forenoon and continued all day, a fall estimated at two inches, breaking previous October records covering a period of 18 years. The forecast indicates freezing for tomorrow and it is estimated that the mercury will sink to 20 degrees above zero with continuation of snow flurries.

EX-SEN. D. B. HILL HAS PASSED AWAY

Prominent Figure in Public Life Dies at Home Near Albany, N. Y,

ACUTE ILLNESS MARKED END

Former Governor of New York State and Well Known in Political World—Governor White Pays Him Fine Tribute.

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 20.—David Bennett Hill's life's work is ended, his body lies tonight at Wolferts Roost, his country home near Albany, while his next of kin, Dr. A. D. Hill, a brother, is speeding to Albany, from his home in Dexter, Mo. Dr. Hill expects to reach Albany Saturday when the funeral arrangements will be completed.

The interement will take place at Montour Falls, Schuyler county, where the former governor and ex-United States Senator was born 87 years ago.

Senator Hill died at 3:45 o'clock this morning. He had been ill nearly three week with a cold and a bilious attack. He was sitting up in bed to take a drink of water when he was seized with an acute dilation of the heart. Death quickly followed with no one but the nurse at his bedside.

Mr. Hill had long been a sufferer from Bright's Disease, which primarily brought upon him the condition that ended in his death.

Although he retired from active participation in politics following the Presidential election of 1904, Senator Hill was deeply interested in the progress of the present campaign. As late as last Friday he discussed the situation with Judge Parker, who was then preparing to make a tour of the State in the interest of the Democratic ticket.

Senator Hill had entertained many men distinguished in State and National politics at Wolferts Roost and his guests always found him a most hospitable host. The Senator never married, did not smoke and rarely indulged in intoxicants.

Governor White tonight issued a proclamation requiring that the flags upon all the public buildings of the State be displayed at half mast until sundown on the day of Senator Hill's funeral and that the citizens of the State unite in appropriate marks of respect to his memory.

"It is with sincere sorrow that I announce the death of David Bennett Hill, former governor of the State of New York," said Governor White. "This sad event marks the close of a remarkable career. For more than 30 years David Bennett Hill was a prominent figure in the public life of the State. The force of his personality impressed itself not only upon the people of New York, but upon the whole country, and at the expiration of his final term as governor, he became the candidate of his party in the State of New York for the presidential nomination before the Democratic National Convention. As United States Senator from 1891 to 1897, he found an ample opportunity for the exercise of his skill as a parliamentarian, his brilliant powers as an orator and his uncommon gifts as a leader of men."

ENGINEER WAS MURDERED.

Employe of Virginian Railroad Found at Roanoke.

Roanoke, Va., Oct. 20.—Virginia Railway yard conductor M. M. Spence was found murdered in the yards here this afternoon. His face, hands and breast had been slashed with a knife and the jugular vein severed. There is no clue to the identity of the slayer and bloodhounds failed to take the trail. Spence had been married two months.

EPISCOPAL BISHOPS NAMED

Five Appointed at Cincinnati Convention Given Out Yesterday.—Gathering Most Important Ever Held by the Church.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20.—With the appointment of five new missionary bishops and the selection of a successor to Bishop Graves, of Kearney, Neb., today, the last important action by either of the houses of the convention of the Protestant Episcopal church was probably taken. The business sessions will end tomorrow.

The following are the new bishops:

Rev. George Allen Beecher, of Omaha, to be bishop of Kearney, Neb.

Rev. Theodore Payne Thurston, Minneapolis, to be bishop of East Oklahoma.

Rev. Francis L. H. Potts, Shanghai, China, to be bishop of Wu Hu, China.

Rev. Louis Sanford, Berkeley, Cali., to be bishop of San Joaquin, Cal.

Rev. Julius Walker Attwood, Phoenix, Arizona, to be bishop of Arizona.

Rev. Albert Temple, Waco, Texas, to be bishop of Northern Texas.

In the opinion of a large number of the bishops, this convention has been the most important ever held by the church.

The most noteworthy actions of the convention during its three weeks' session have been the creation of the suffragan bishops, the calling of a world's conference for Christian unity and a movement towards indorsing unction to the sick for healing purposes rather than for spiritual needs.

Bishop Arthur F. Lloyd, of Southern Virginia, was elected president of the re-organized board of domestic and foreign missions at the afternoon session of both houses today. The name of Bishop Brent, of the Philippines was also proposed, but was withdrawn.

A resolution in the house of deputies, declaring that "we protest against the unfair and inhuman treatment of the Jews in the Empire of Russia," was lost by a close vote and the resolution was placed on the calendar.

Preceeding the social service conference, a resolution presented by Bishop Greer, of New York, was adopted, asking help from every one to further the laws against child labor.

POLICE OFFICIALS RESIGN.

Shake-Up in That Department in New York—Gaynor's Statement.

New York, Oct. 20.—The long expected shake-up in the administration of the police department occurred late today when announcement was made from Mayor Gaynor's office that Police Commissioner W. F. Baker and his deputies, Frederick H. Bugher and Charles W. Kirby, had resigned.

James C. Cropsey, a Brooklyn lawyer, was named to succeed Mr. Baker; Clement J. Driscoll, who has attracted public attention recently by his activity as commissioner of weights and measures, was appointed first deputy to succeed Mr. Bugher, and Capt. William G. Flynn, chief operative of the United States secret service, was made head of the detective bureau with the title of second deputy. Mr. Flynn's appointment is in line with the known intention of Mayor Gaynor thoroughly to re-organize the detective bureau.

The changes, while long expected, came with an abruptness not unfamiliar since Mayor Gaynor took office.

Commissioner Baker's letter of resignation was not made public. The mayor gave out his own acceptance of it, stating that in the work of the department he had always found Mr. Baker intelligent and earnest. He also gave out a long letter to the new commissioner, Mr. Cropsey, in which he points out the manner in which he wishes the department conducted.

The mayor says he will hold the new commissioner responsible for the enforcement of outward order and decency first and next for the detection of secret illegal places. "Finally," says the mayor, "let me say that all sensational noise and scandalizing of the city in the work of your department should be stopped. Let the work be systematic and constant, all complaints from citizens being specially attended to."

"GOV." CRAIG SPEAKS.

Great Audience to Hear Him Yesterday at Washington.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, N. C., Oact. 20.—Hon. Locke Craig, of Buncombe, arrived in the city today on the morning train and addressed a large and enthusiastic audience of Democrats in the county court house at 11 o'clock this morning. He was met at the depot by a number of representative citizens and the Washington Concert Band and escorted to the court house, where he was introduced to the public by Mr. J. T. Tayloe, in a very graceful and ornate speech, designating him as North Carolina's next Governor, which met with the enthusiastic approval of all present.

Mr. Craig spoke for nearly an hour holding his audience spellbound by his effective arguments and eloquence. His speech dealing with the different political questions of the day, was a masterpiece and one of the strongest addresses ever made in Beaufort county. He flayed "Mary Ann" Butler unmercifully and showed up all his fraud and deception to public view. His different arguments against Republican principles of the present day were also exceptionally strong and his whole address made a profound impression on his audience.

Today has been a great day for the cause of Democracy in Beaufort and Hon. Locke Craig has done much for it. The indications are that he will have a strong following in Beaufort on election day.

CRUSHING DEFEAT FOR CHICAGO CUBS

Athletics Won Fourth Game of Series on Nationals' Own Grounds.

MACK EXPECTS PENNANT

Chance Has Exhausted Pitching Staff Features of Yesterday's Contest—Murphy Played Star Ball—Details Given.

Chicago, Oct. 20—Philadelphia came out here today and rubbed it in. The Athletics claimed their third successive victory of the world's championship series with the Chicago Nationals to the tune of 12 to 5 and if the big pennant is not nailed to the Quaker City mast tomorrow, Connie Mack will be the most surprised, bewildered, astounded and obfuscated gentleman on the baseball map. Capt. Chance was ordered from the field in the third inning for disputing a decision.

In the three games played so far the Easterners have pounded every assortment of curves which the entire galaxy of Cub pitchers could offer. Only "King" Cole, so-caled pitching "find" of the year is to be seriously considered by Manager Chance and he has been held back because of his inexperience in crucial games and a belief, also, that his assortment of shoots is just what the Mack men like. Mack will in all probabilily furnish local enthusiasts with a view of Pender tomorrow. Who will go against him is a problem. Maybe three fingered Brown—maybe Cole.

And then there are Foxen, an untried man, and Pfeffer has been of little use this year.

It is a matter of indifference to Mr. Mack. He and his players regard the game tomorrow as a mere formality—a bit of red tape, with incidental profit, of course—necessary to gain the title to the bunting. The comb today was a slaughter. Big Ed Reulbach lasted just two innings, during which he allowed one single and two doubles, passed two batsmen and saw three runs cross the home plate. McIntire was the next twirler led forward to slaughter. He pitched just one-third of an inning, but that was long enough for the visitors to hammer out two singles, a home run, and to send Davis to first robbing his back where one of McIntire's inshoots had hit him. With the assistance of a boot by Schulte, four runs were scored under his beneficent reign.

The bright particular stars of the day were Coombs, Barry and Murphy. Coombs allowed only six hits, passed four men and contributed a two-bagger and a single, which added three runs to the Philadelphia collection. Barry hit as if there were another automobile in sight. He also figured in two runs and himself reached the counting station thrice. It remained for Murphy, however, to electrify the crowd. His first noteworthy exploit was to smash the ball over the heads of the rightfield overflow crowd into the regular bleachers for four sacks, driving in two runners ahead of him. At the time he didn't know how far the sphere had traveled and stopped after covering the two bases allowed under the ground rules for hits into ths overflow. Umpire O'Day waved to him to come in, which he did, with half the team slapping him on the back.

The hit was more than a run-counter, for it figured largely in the expulsion of Capt. Chance from the grounds. Chance, joined by most of his men, surrounded O'Day in an endeavor to persuade him with rules, made all hits into the crowd at any point or distance, doubles. The arbiter couldn't see it and when the Cub leader sought to prolong the argument ordered him from the field. Archer, ordinarily a catcher, replaced him at the initial station.

Murphy's next sensational exhibition earned him an ovation. He ran back after what Zimmerman had marked for a double, jumped on the barrier in right field, grasped the ball by his fingernails, fell over backward into the crowd and presently emerged with the trophy still safe. Meanwhile Sheckard, thinking that there were two out or that Murphy couldn't possibly have captured the drive, sped around the bases. He awoke at third to find he had been doubled at first.

Sheckard faced Coombs four times and all but once was allowed to walk. He brought two runs across the plate and fielded his position without a flaw. Both of Schulte's hits were doubles. Tinker made three hits, one of which was a two-bagger. His fielding was not up to his stick work, however, two errors being charged against him. He negotiated the only stolen base of the day.

The brand of weather furnished constituted an argument against long schedules. Early in the morning it rained and while this shower passed, mist-like drops fell during much of the game. A chilling wind came from the northwest and the clouds were overcast.

There were 4,000 persons in line when the sale of general admission tickets began. The stands were filled

BALLOTS SHOWER IN THE CONTEST

Thousands Cast Up To Last Evening to Appear in Today's Count As Announced.

SPECIAL CONTEST CONTINUES

Now the Time to Make Every Minute Count—Something of the Prizes—The Trips to Cuba.

Thousands of votes were cast up to last evening to appear in the count which follows in these columns today, and a great many contestants whose names were at the bottom of the list a few days ago, are rapidly making their way up the list, and before many more days have passed there is little doubt but that they will be among the leaders of the districts.

In the Race to Win.

Of course the contest is far from being ended, but a large number of the candidates have entered the race to win. New contestants are entering almost daily, and the old ones are there with the firm determination of staying with the contest until the close.

In Regard to Coupons.

When sending in coupons cut from the Morning Star be sure that the candidates' name appears upon at least one of the coupons, and have them fastened together in some manner. Several complaints have been received that there was a shortage in the votes published, and several bunches of coupons have been in the ballot box with no name whatever upon them.

The Special Offer.

This extra vote offer closes one week from next Saturday night on the 29th of October. This offer will not be extended, and it is positively the last extra vote offer of the contest. Send in $18 in subscriptions before the 29th of this month, and besides receiving the regular number of votes on each subscription, you will receive 18,000 extra votes, making this offer count for about three times the regular number of votes on each club of $18.00 in new subscriptions.

Votes Not Transferable.

Positively no votes will be transferred. If they were allowed the Contest Manager would not claim to run a fair contest. Were it possible to transfer votes a number of contestants who had not worked extra hard could combine their votes and win the Grand Prize over some contestant who was striving by hard work to win this prize for herself.

When votes have been issued to one contestant, or when they have been credited in the paper to one contestant, they cannot be given to another.

Four Grand Prizes.

First Grand Prize is $500 in cash. Second, third and fourth grand prizes consists of a double trip to Cuba including expenses, for the winner and a companion, a handsome upright piano, and a pony, buggy and harness.

Besides these, there are 24 district prizes which consist of diamond rings, Turkish rockers, gold watches, and $25 bank accounts. These prizes are all particularly handsome, and when they are placed upon exhibition that declaration will be unanimous.

Cuban Trips.

Start right from Wilmington or from the home of the young lady winner and her companion. The Atlantic Coast Line has a schedule so there are no changes of cars making one continuous trip with a stop-over at Jacksonville and Tampa, if the young lady so desires. When one steps upon that train upon her way to that beautiful island she turns everything and every responsibility over to the Atlantic Coast Line, and there will be no bother of baggage, no bother of changing cars, no worry about missing your steamer, everything is prearranged for you, and there is no delay and no chance for worry on this pleasure trip to Cuba.

The trip from Port Tampa extends over 24 miles of "Old Tampa Bay," the Gulf of Mexico being reached at Egmont Key where there has been established since the Spanish-American War one of the best army posts and fortifications on the coast, known as Fort De Soto. The trip from there down to Key West is in the inner Gulf and is usually as smooth as glass. By this route the transparency of the water fascinates more and more until the Key West harbor is reached where the color varies from deep blue to pale green, but whatever the hue, the water is always like a flawless crystal.

A full description of the beauties of Cuba and this wondrous trip will appear in the next few days. Each and every contestant should read it, and then start out in their work with renewed efforts to win one of these Grand Capital Prizes. The standing of the contestants is as follows:

THE MOHONK CONFERENCE.

A Number of Prominent Men Spoke at Sessions Yesterday.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Tonight's session of the Lake Mohonk Conference of friends of the Indian and other dependent peoples, was devoted to the Philippines, general discussion by members under the five minute rule. Formal addresses were made by W. Morgan Shuster, former member of the Philippine commission; John S. Hord, president of the Spanish American Bank of Manila; Captain J. E. Bloom, U. S. A., and James F. Tracey, Albany, former member of the Philippine Supreme Court.

PATHFINDERS ON THE RETURN

E. M. F. Thirty Left Charlotte Yesterday Via Cheraw, Bennettsville and Dillon, S. C.—Others Return by Rail.

Messrs. Jos. H. Hinton, Dr. T. B. Carroll, Capt Edgar L. Hinton, Mr. Louis H. Skinner and others of the party of pathfinders who went to Charlotte cross country, leaving Wilmington Tuesday morning, in their automobiles, returned to the city on the early train this morning, Mr. Hinton and Mr. F. J. Gooding having decided to have their cars shipped back to Wilmington by rail, and Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Mr. H. deW. Rapalje and Mr. J. C. McEachin in the official Pathfinder E. M. F. 30, having left Charlotte at 4:05 o'clock yesterday afternoon for the return via Monroe, Chesterfield, Cheraw, Bennettsville and Dillon, S. C., probably arriving here tomorrow morning.

The gentlemen returning this morning talk most interestingly of the trip and would not take a great deal for the experience but do not care for a repetition of the difficulties which beset them all day Wednesday from Rockingham to Charlotte. On account of the rain the local roads enthusiasts in Anson, Union and Mecklenburg did not provide pilots and in the rain and slush, traveling was very difficult as has been related in the telegraphic reports to the Star. The Charlotte Chronicle yesterday afternoon says:

"The enthusiastic occupants of the pathfinder car, and of the others, were much disappointed yesterday morning when they were compelled to leave Rockingham in a pouring and drenching rain, and with the mud, red and slick, rendering progress almost impossible at places.

"Mr. MacMillan, owner of the pathfinder, talked interestingly today of the difficulties of the second day's run from Rockingham to Charlotte.

"The members of the Good Roads Association at Rockingham accompanied us from their town to the ferry,' he said. 'All of the cars came over the ferry together and the trip from there to Wadesboro was without special event, except that the mud was getting thicker and more tenacious and traveling was all the more difficult. The Locomobile and the Chalmers '30' went ahead of the pathfinder car at Wadesboro, the latter losing an hour in changing tires at Wadesboro. Then the car took the road, and the last seen by it of the other two cars was a few miles west of Polkton. Then nothing more was seen of these two cars, although diligent effort was made to locate them.

"'Upon reaching Monroe the pathfinder car and occupants spent three hours and 50 minutes, or from 5:15 P. M., until 9:05 P. M. in telephoning trying to discover the whereabouts of Mr. Gooding's Locomobile and the Chalmers '30'. At 9:05 the pathfinder of Mr. MacMillan pulled out for Charlotte, arriving at 12:40, where it discovered that the Chalmers '30' was already here, having arrived some three hours previous by another route from Monroe'."

A long distance telephone message at 2 o'clock this morning from Mr. H. deW. Rapalje at Bennettsville, S. C., states that the official Pathfinder, the E. M. F. 30, owned and driven by Mr. W. D. MacMillan, Jr., and having on board Mr. MacMillan, Mr. Rapalje, the engineer, Mr. J. C. McEachin and Mr. William Wiley reached Bennettsville at 1:15 o'clock this morning via Chesterfield, S. C. and Cheraw, S. C., distance 87.7 miles. They left Cnarlotte at 4:05 P. M. and made good time, finding the route with much less grade and rather an improvement over conditions the day before. The party will leave Bennettsville at 6 o'clock this evening.

CALLS TEDDY LIAR TWICE.

Cornell Professor Flays Former President—Judge Parker Spoke.

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 20.—Twice in one speech tonight Prof. E. H. Woodruff, of Cornell University, called Theodore Roosevelt a liar, once an "unmitigated liar." His attack made at a political rally over which he presided, threw the house into an uproar. There were cat calls, hisses, cheers and clapping, with a steady shout behind them all of "Parker! Parker!" for the next speaker, former Judge Alton B. Parker. Judge Parker sprang to his feet and begged the audience to allow Prof. Woodruff to be heard. The noisier part of the house complied and quiet was restored.

Prof. Woodruff began by opening up the Bellamy Storer episode which Col. Roosevelt only recently declared closed. He charged that when the Colonel denied sending Bellamy Storer to the Vatican, he was "an unmitigated liar" and there were letters in his office, said the professor, to bear him out.

The uproar over this attack had barely subsided when the professor took up his cudgels again. Roosevelt was twice a liar, he said, when he denied that the late E. H. Harriman had subscribed to a corruption fund to be used for Roosevelt's election to the Presidency.

Judge Parker, who followed him, directed all his shafts at Candidate Stimson, of the opposition.

SEVERAL VESSELS OVERDUE.

Grave Fears are Entertained for Safety of Some of Them.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 20.—Grave fears are entertained here for the safety of the three-masted schooner Hieronymous, nineteen days out from Cienfuegos, in command of Capt. Sommerville with a crew of eight men.

The Hieronymous was formerly the British schooner King of Avon, that was wrecked in the hurricane of 1906, and the entire crew lost with the exception of one man.

Among the other vessels overdue at this port are the British schooner Enterprise, American schooners Harry K. Feeks, Harison T. Beacham,, Mary C. Hale, Claa Phinney and Otis. The last named is seventeen days out from Cuba.

SENATOR DOLLIVER'S FUNERAL.

Thousands Pay Tribute to Distinguished Iowan—Burial.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Oct. 20.—While a cold rain fell and added gloom to the occasion, the body of Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver today was laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery on a hillside overlooking Fort Dodge.

The drizzling rain, driven by a raw cold wind compelled the family to abandon the original plan of holding the services on the lawn of the Dolliver home. The funeral was held in the 56th Regiment Armory, which accommodate 6,000 persons.

Friends and admirers crowded all the available space in the building, while standing outside the building in the rain were nearly 3,000 persons. Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, finally left the services inside and made a funeral oration to those in the street.

From 9 o'clock until 11 this morning the body of Senator Dolliver lay in state in the reception room of the Dolliver home. Hundreds of persons looked on the form of the senior senator as it lay in the gray coffin, banked by floral designs.

Immediately upon the arrival of the United States Senate and House committees at 10:30 o'clock, the simple services at the home, consisting of a prayer by Rev. William H. Spence, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, of Fort Dodge, were held. The body was then conveyed to the armory. Particularly noticeable was a huge wreath sent by the United States Senate. In the center of this mound of flowers the coffin was placed.

The services in the armory were brief. A half dozen men, representing the church, the State, the government and the citizens of the country eulogized the departed Senator following the ritualistic services of the church.

Following the services the cortege filed silently to Oakdale cemetery. At a spot on a hillside which Senator Dolliver himself had picked out for his burying place, the procession stopped.

At the grave side statesmen, clergymen and hundreds of men, women and children stood in the rain and listened to the final service, a simple prayer by Rev. Spence, Senator Dolliver's pastor.

The grave was banked with Autumn leaves, tinted a golden brown and crimson, gathered and placed there by hands on Senator Dolliver's farm.

THE RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS.

Bureau of Education Distributing Examination Papers.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Examination papers for the Cecil Rhodes scholarships are being distributed by the Bureau of Education. The examination is to be held in every State in the Union October 25th and 26th, for the purpose of selecting two persons from each State to receive Rhodes scholarships in Oxford University. Each successful candidate is given $1,500 a year for a period of three years, to cover his expenses at the University.

Dr. George R. Parkin, of the Rhodes Scholarship Trust, is in this city conferring with the officials of the Bureau of Education, in regard to the scholarships. He will visit a number of States for the purpose of arranging the committees of selection, and to see that the aims of the scholarship system are understood.

METHODIST BISHOPS MEET.

Semi-Annual Conference Being Held At New Orleans.

New Orleans, Oc. 20.—With nine bishops present the semi-annual conference of the college of bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, began here today, and although the sessions were executive, it was given out that but few matters of importance to church administration were passed on.

Several committees were named, among them being the committee on constitution as follows: Bishop Wilson, chairman, and Bishops Candler, Atkins, Denny, Murray. The conference ends tomorrow.

New York, October 20.—Theodore Roosevelt began to unumber his heavy artillery tonight. In two speeches, one in Manhattan and the other in Brooklyn, he accused John A. Dix, the Democratic candidate for Governor, of being one of the directors in a company which aided in forming a complete scheme to accomplish the stifling of commerce—a trust against which he quoted the strictures of a judge now a justice of the United State Supreme Court and contrasted his business record with the public record of Henry L. Stimson, the Republican candidate.

From the same platform Bourke Cockran, formerly a Democratic orator, announced that he will this Fall vote the Republican ticket.

Mobile, Ala., Oct. 20.—Several days over due the fruit steamer Beliz reached port tonight bringing seven members of the crew of the fishing smack Minnie W., out of Pensacola, Fla., which was lost at sea. One member of the crew lost his life while the work of transferring the men from the foundered smack was in progress.

ABANDONS BRIBERY TRAIL.

New York Stops Investigation of $500,000 Corruption Fund.

New York, Oct. 19.—The Legislature Investigating Committee begged the question this afternoon and for the moment abandoned all attempts to find out who raised the money subscribed at Delmonico's to defeat Hughes race track bill, where it went to, or even if any money was really raised. But elsewhere, following the story told on the witness stand yesterday by Robert Elder, first assistant district Attorney of Kings county, in his conversation with former State Senator Frank Gardner, denials were not wanting today. Instead of pushing forward on the path taken yesterday, the committee turned its attention to the bridge scandal aired in the Allds trial at Albany during the last session of the legislature.

Former Senator Ben Conger, who made the charges that led to the expulsion of Senator Allds retold his story of bribes paid to legislators. Positive denial was made by the four newspaper men in Mr. Elder's testimony yesterday that the Albany correspondents of the newspapers had been paid money by the racing lobby.

Tomorrow the committee will resume its inquiry into Gardner's tale of the use of the $500,000 to defeat the bills as related by Mr. Elder and this investigation will lead the members to Sing Sing. Word was received from Frederick Schroder, former quarantine commissioner, now serving a prison sentence for the larceny of bank funds, that he would like to be heard in reply to Representative Otto G. Foelker's charges that he had tried to buy his vote. As Schroeder cannot come to New York the committee will visit the penitentiary to take his testimony.

In order that the Gardner story may be thoroughly probed subpoenas were drawn today for James R. Keene, Harry Payne Whitney and other men, who, Gardner was quoted as telling Mr. Elder, attended the dinner at Delmonico's when the corruption fund was subscribed.

James R. Keene this afternoon, issued a statement which anticipates a denial on the stand. He said:

"I never attended a meeting at Delmonico's with the gentlemen named, nor have ever heard of such a meeting. I have never directly or indirectly paid or caused to be paid one penny or other sum to any individual or individuals, or person or persons for other individuals or to any fund as charged in respect of any such race track legislation."

New York, Oct. 20.—Col. Thomas Thompson Eckert, former president of the Western Union Telegraph Company, died today at West End, Long Branch, after an illness of several days. Mr. Eckert was born at St. Clairville, Ohio, April 23, 1825.

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 20.—A jury in the Circuit Court today awarded Mrs. Rose Drummond $500 damages from E. J. Goldsmith. The allegation was that the defendant had tried to kiss her.

MARRIED WOMEN

No married woman's happiness is complete without children; she yearns with the deeper longings of her nature for the joys of motherhood. But women who bear children should prepare for the coming of baby by properly caring for their physical systems. Mother's Friend is the expectant mother's greatest help. It is a remedy which prepares the muscles and tendons for the unusual strain, renders the ligaments supple and elastic, aids in expanding the skin and flesh fibres, and strengthens all the membranes and tissues. It is especially valuable where the breasts are troublesome from swelling and congestion, and its regular use will lessen the pain and danger when the little one comes. Women who use Mother's Friend are assured of passing the crisis with safety. It is for sale at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

REPUBLICAN TRICK PERFORMER.

State Republican Chairman John Motley Moorehead's "fight" for the purpose of building up a 'respectable Republican party" in North Carolina was equivalent to publicity admitting that it wasn't respectable before he undertook to administer the treatment that would make it decent. He gained the asscendency in his party under promise to make it respectable, and as one of the voters we have been watching to see how he was going about his difficult task.

Chairman Moorehead has undertaken it by making leaders of the same men who have been identified with his party during all the years when it acquired its bad reputation. If by past affiliation his chosen men failed to "respectableize" the party, what right has Chairman Moorehead to expect us voters to believe they will make the present aggregation any more respectable than it was in the past? While his leaders were conspicious in the life of Republicanism in the past and failed to make it decent, are not the same obstacles in the way to prevent fulfillment of his promise now? In other words, how can you make a silk purse out of a sow's ear?

How can any party gain "respectability" if its morale—its rank and file—is the same as it used to be? Is it possible to make any party "respectabl" when it simply changes its State Chairman and retains the leaders who were predominant when the party acquired its past ordoriferousness?

We are going to keep worrying over this apparent impossibility and must persist in being from Missiouri' till Chairman Moorehead can prove how he can make a fiddle out of a squeedunk. We are paying our money to see this thing and we don't want to be fooled.

The fellow who waits will have to take what's left. Listen for the rising bell, and "be up and doing," so you will be classed as a live-live citizen."

It is announced that play-house managers are threatening to eliminate the chorus girl. In many instances that would do away with the whole show.

Our old friend Walter Wellman didn't span the space between America and Europe on his monster balloon voyage but he filled lots of space on this side of the Atlantic.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press remarks: "Cavalieri's father was a janitor. This may account for her domineering ways." Yes, but how can all the rest of them account for it when they have no janitor to blame?

Voting is largely a moral question. It involves a man's sacred duty to his country and to organized society, and if he doesn't vote right he will have to answer to his own conscience. Every North Carolinian should vote for the best interests of his State. If he does, he certainly will not vote the Republican ticket.

"The spool gown" is now the latest thing in ladies' wearing apparel. It seems to be some sort of dress with a long silk belt which is wound around and around the lady as if she were a spool. It is said that it would take a man 20 minutes to wind up his wife. That's nothing, however, as she could turn right around and wind him up with one look.

Says the Norfolk Virginian-Pilot: "Collier's Weekly declares that wherever business sense prevails in a community, there the commission form of government is being adopted and bringing forth the best results. Yes, provided the business sense prevails to put the best men in office. Otherwise, the experiment is a failure." Nothing truer was ever said. The success of any form of municipal government depends upon the ability and character of those who administer the affairs of a city.

In attempting to shift the blame for the standpat tariff plank in the New York platform to the shoulders of others, Col. Roosevelt denied that he was in complete control of the Saratoga convention. One of the evidences that he had the whip hand at the convention is that William Barnes, Jr., was made to walk the plank and Vice-President Sherman was made to take a back seat. If the truth were known, the Colonel cared so little about the tariff he was willing for the convention to suit itself in endorsing the Payne-Aldrich tariff law. He raised no protest in the convention against it and it is too late for him to attempt to create the impression that the tariff plank does not suit him.

BUTLER PICKED IT UP HOT.

Marion Butler, former populist United States Senator, who lives in Washing to but for some reason or other came back to North Carolina to figure in this campaign, has been the instrument of evoking from United States Senator F. M. Simmons an excoriation quite severe enough to leave the hide of a rhinoceros in bad shape. By atempting to "come back," the former Populist Senator made himself one of the issues in the campaing, for when he and Moorehead captured the Republican organization he exposed a vulnerability that made him an easy mark for the Democrats. Moreover, the wiley and foxy "Mary Ann" more than ever made himself a target when he began to get busy as a spieler for the "respectable Republican party" (as alleged), for it is written that at the beginning of the campaign Butler sent an arrant, blatant and disrespectful challenge to Senator Simmons to meet him in a joint discussion of what the Sampsonian termed "issues of the campaign." In concluding his bumptuous and insulting challenge to Senator Simmons, Butler wrote that distinguished gentleman as follows

"You and your party have raised the cry of Butler and the ghost of negro domination in your desperation to distract the attention of the voters from your miserable record of hypocrisy and broken promises, and under cover of which to again debauch the ballot box. I am ready to cancel one or more of my appointments to meet you at the State capital in joint debate, at which time I promise to show your treachery to your State and to your country. If you do not reply I shall hire a hall in Raleigh, advertise the fact that I shall speak there and denounce you as you deserve."

It seems that Senator Simmons is particular about whom he stops to discuss matters with in the fish market. The old code duello drew the line on accepting challenges from any adversary who wasn't the equal of the gentleman challenged, and so Senator Simmons stood on his dignity and spurned the Butler gauntlet. He stamped it in the mire, and in refusing to discuss issues on the stump with Butler, the Senator declared that "no decent Democrat would hold a joint discussion with Marion Butler in the light in which he now appears before the people of the State." The Senator also gave the insulting Butler to understand that he could not afford to meet a man in joint discussion after "the people passed the judgment of outlawry upon him." In several speeches, Senator Simmons has branded Butler as "a traitor to his State, denounced him for "treachery" and placed him in the same class with Benedict Arnold who betraved his country.

When Butler sent his challenge to Simmons he didn't expect that gentleman to accept it, and, as truly remarked by the Charlotte Chronicle, "as a mater of course, Mr. Simmons would give no recognition to a letter couched in such language," as Butler used in his infamous challenge. Certainly, Senator Simmons was justifiable in being indignant and for not considering the author of such a surrillous challenge as "worthy of his steel" Even Butler's record would deter a chivalric gentleman from being caught on the stump with him, and besides any such recognition of the blatant flopper would have inflated his opinion of his importance and standing.

Butler doesn't love Simmons, and thus the Newbern Journal, published at the home of the Senator, furnishes the reason: "It was Senator Simmons who generaled the fight against this nefarious charlatan in the white supremacy fight some years ago, and when we remember this fact alone, does anyone wonder that the Senator should have other than an opinion of this kind of Butler the Boodler?"

Butler should have been more mindful of the proprieties, for he knew he would be one of the issues of the campaign and must have been fully cognizant of the fact that a Democratic spieler would have to say some rough things about him to his face. A gentleman oughtn't to want to sompel people to say ugly things to his face, for no "jint debate" with Butler would be complete without exposing a political record that is black and damnable. Why, it was Judge Spencer B. Adams, a former Superior Court Judge and lately State Chairman of the Republican party, who, on the 23rd of August, 1908, in replying to charges against his integrity, made by Butler, said of the Sampsonian:

"There is nothing new in these slanderous charges. The public by this time understand that they emanate from that cowardly traitor who has not only betrayed his State, but every party and about every person with whom he ever affiliated. Nothing that I may say can add to the contempt with which the people of North Carolina look upon this white-livered traitor, nor can the public fail to understand the purpose of this rehash."

Simmons' and Adams' opinion of Butler seems to be sort of unanimous, and the accumulated and accumulative evidence would justify Butler in hiring a hall and inviting the harpies to combat with him instead of hankering after exchanging spiels with the distinguished North Carolina Senator. The fact is no Democrat would feel nice in attempting to have a joint debate with Butler, for he would have to say too many bad things to his face.

An old Quaker who saw a storm coming up, hurriedly took his wagon to the field to haul in a load of wheat before it rained. In attempting to drive through the barnyard gate, the hub of the wagon hit the gatepost and dumped the load. Meanwhile, the rain was falling in the distance and coming steadily on. The Quaker hurriedly reloaded his wheat and attempted to drive through again, when, to his dismay, the load again toppled off. He repeated his efforts a third time, and when at last the hub again hit the gatepost, with the usual result, while the rain had begun to beat upon his head, the good old Quaker was in a rage. His wife rushed out to his assistance but he turned to her and heatedly yelled: "Maria! Get thee back to the house. I'm going to say words not fit for thee to hear!" So it would be in a joint debate with Mary Ann.

The man who "does things" often wishes he hadn't.

The man who hoes his own row has 15 cent cotton to sell.

Some people think an excuse will pass for an explanation.

The man who buys another always doubts the value of his purchase.

Some people don't find out their political mistakes till it's too late to keep from going wrong.

A magazine writer says "large women are grand." So they are and so are the different sizes of them on down the scale.

It is not everybody who takes a balloon for a voyage across the Atlantic ocean who can expect to have Walter Wellman's luck.

"The early bird catches the worm." The worm gets caught because it's too slow to keep out of the way. Hustle and don't get caught.

People succeed because they keep gegging away. The fruits of industry are often attributed to luck but it is the steady worker who turns the trick.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Marion Butler hates Senator Simmons for the same reason that a criminal hates a detective.—Newbern Sun.

There are some of us who do not care to be cured of hookworm. The feeling is too comfortable.—Durham Herald.

While Mr. Morehead may be running the thing, he is leaving it to the rest of them to do the talking.—Durham Herald.

But if the fool killer had completed his work, Walter Wellman and his push would not have started across the ocean in that airship.—Clinton (N. C.) News Dispatch.

The Lorimer Investigating Committee has completed its inquiry and adjourned to meet in Washington to prepare its "findings"—after the election.—Kansas City Star.

It was all the better for the Wilmington-to-Charlotte good roads pathfinders that the run was made for the most part in wind and rain. The best way to pick out a good road is to travel in bad weather.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Democratic orators and papers continue to point with horror to the "blight of 1895 and 1897." Those terrible times were indeed terrible to Democrats, for no Democrat was then drawing a salary from the State, except Judge Clark; and he wasn't much of a Democrat then.—Greensboro News (Rep.)

"Fair exchange is no robbery." Two years ago Iredell Meares, of New Hanover, quit the Democratic party to 'jine the radicals.' It took ten columns for him to give his reasons. This year John D. Meares, a Republican of Wilson county, left that party to join the Democratic party. He gave his clear and sound reasons in one-half column space. So each party has Meares.—News and Observer. On the face of the returns the Democrats got the best of it. Any man that needs ten columns to give one reason is nine and one-half columns too much for us.—Durham Sun.

That Chinese laborers, with an overweening desire to gain admittance into the United States or Canada, are not dismayed by so small a thing as the lack of a cordial welcome is evident from the persistency with which they worm their way into the two countries. Sometimes they succeed in their undertaking, but very frequently they are caught and deported—a process, by the way, which is attended by no little expense. The four, for instance, who were taken from a box car at Holyoke, Mass., on September 18, have been started back to China by way of San Francisco, and it is estimated that their deportation will cost the government between $1,200 and $1,500. Meanwhile, Canadian secret service officers have just made their second haul of contraband Chinamen since the official investigation into the smuggling of Chinese laborers was begun. Saturday night or Sunday, they captured 18 Orientals, who arrived at Vancouver on board the steamer Empress of India. These Chinamen attempted to evade payment of the head tax by declaring themselves as merchants; each being provided with letters by a Vancouver interpreter, who was formerly engaged as a customs official.—Manchester Union.

OUTLOOK IN COLUMBUS.

Democrats Are Very Sanguine—Farm Conditions Excellent—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., Oct. 20.—Hon. J. A. Brown, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee of Columbus, has arranged to cover the county with Democratic speakers, and arouse the voters so as to have a full turnout at the election. Beginning Tuesday, Messrs. N. A. Sinclair, of Fayetteville, and Hon. H. L. Lyon, of Columbus, will fill one list of appointments, and Hon. J. A. Brown will fill another. Other speakers may be added later. Party leaders do not feel the slightest doubt about Columbus county not going overwhelmingly Democratic, but they don't want voters to be over-confident and fail to turn out. The county candidates will be with the speakers and also perhaps make addresses.

Mr. W. C. Carter, of Tatom's township, who has been an old-line Republican and voted that ticket ever since the war, is out in a published card stating that he will henceforth vote the Democratic ticket, as the State is now well and faithfully governed, and he does not think it best to turn it over to the Republicans. Mr. Carter is one of the strongest members the Republicans had, and a leader in his section. It is said that his action will add many votes to the Democratic column, and give Tatom's to the Democrats, which township has always been a Republican stronghold.

There are several parties in this county this week from Robeson county and the Pee Dee section of South Carolina, looking after either buying or renting farms. They say land rentals in South Carolina have been doubled, owing to the high price of cotton, and the price is now so high that to purchase a farm is beyond the reach of a poor man. This week Mr. A. C. Oliver bought 140 acres from Mayor Davis, near Whiteville, and yesterday he sold it to one of the parties at a nice profit. Mr. Oliver then bought another farm from Mrs. V. V. Richardson, near town. He is buying this land on a speculation. A gentleman from Marion county, S. C., stated yesterday to the Star's representative that he was most agreeably surprised by the farm land in Columbus, and considered it even better than the high priced land in his State; that all the people needed was to adopt more advanced agricultural methods.

This year a cropper on Deputy Sheriff Ammon's place, with a little $90 mule, will make ten heavy bales of cotton, over 300 bushels of corn, besides plenty of potatoes, peas, hay and other food crops. Mr. Covington, of Boardman, says his cotton will turn out a bale to the acre. Every acre of cleared land in the county can be rented to good white tenants so as to pay a big interest on the investment. Hence both the price of land and the work of opening up more land is rapidly progressing.

PREPARING FOR BOOKER.

Rocky Mount Negroes to Entertain—Fire Alarm—Baseball Draft.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., Oct. 20.—The negro business league of this city has arranged for a big event in their history November 2nd, when Booker T. Washington, president of Tuskegee University, and one of the foremost negroes of the age, is to speak in this city at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This negro business league is headed by T. W. Thurston and other prominent negroes over the State and the organization has worked great good with the colored race. Thurston was instrumental in the starting of a colored silk mill in this city and this entirely owned and managed by colored people has given employment to many of their race in this city.

The Gamewell fire alarm system recently ordered by the Board of Aldermen, has been shipped by the manufacturer and a part of it has arrived. The entire apparatus is expected almost every day now and the same will be put into use as soon as possible after its arrival.

Another member of last season's Railroaders will be seen in faster company next year is the information received by President L. C. Levy, of the Rocky Mount Association, in a private communication from the business manager of the Providence Club in the Eastern League. Third-baseman Jimmie Gillespie, who was conceded to have been one of the best in this circuit last year, has been drafted by Providence, and while the draft has not been passed upon by the National Commission, and the player awarded and the money turned over to the Rocky Mount club, still the Providence management states that the draft has been filed for the third sacker and that President Farrell has the $300 draft price.

CARD FROM DR. LUCAS.

Not a Candidate for Legislature in Pender County—Thanks Expresse Pender County—Thanks.

Editor Star:—Much to my astonishment, I see in your paper of today's date an advertisement signed "Legion," proposing to run me as an independent candidate for the lower house of the next General Assembly from Pender county. I wish to say that I am not, or have I been a candidate for any office in Pender county. I have not words to express my appreciation of the great compliment lately paid to me by the people of my county. I have always been loyal to my party and country and sincerely trust that the friends who desire to make me an independent candidate will unite with me in full and hearty support of all nominees of our party.

Very truly,

ELECTION FRAUDS INQUIRY.

Grand Jury Probes Into Virginia Congressional Primary.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 20.—The grand jury today recumed its inquiry into alleged election frauds in the Democratic Congressional primary of October 23rd. Between 30 and 40 new witnesses were before the jury, including James B. Heath and E. A. Bilisoly of citizens' counsel in the primary investigation.

This makes about 100 witnesses in all that have been before the grand jury, which up to this time, has considered only alleged frauds in the second, or court house, precinct of the second ward of Norfolk city.

During today's session, the grand jury sent to Democratic City Chairman Schenck, asking for the poll books as used in the court house precinct. This followed the appearance of Messrs. Bilisoly and Heath. The jury is picking out the name of such persons only as are desired to testify and as the names are handed to Sergeant Lawler, a deputy is sent out for the witnesses. These are persons who are recorded as having voted, but it is believed and was alleged by citizens' counsel in the primary, did not vote.

The jury without making report adjourned until 10 A. M. tomorrow.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Need Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Brookfield, Mo.—"Two years ago I was unable to do any kind of work and only weighed 118 pounds. My trouble dates back to the time that women may expect nature to bring on them the Change of Life. I got a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it made me feel much better, and I have continued its use. I am very grateful to you for the good health I am now enjoying."—Mrs. SARAH LOUSIGNONT, 414 S. Livingston Street, Brookfield, Mo.

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease and pain.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

HOBOES TO COUNTY ROAD

Wilmington No Place for Tramps as Four Have Had Occasion to Learn During Past Few Days—From Recorder.

Hoboes not looking for immediate employment, and none is, would do well to give Wilmington a wide berth, for if they come here they are certain to be taken in tow by the vigilant police officers and are just as certain of a 30 days' service for the county, handed out by the Recorder, as four white men now doing time will testify. As a rule, Wilmington probably has fewer visits from the care-free population than any other city in the State, but for some unaccountable reason many seem to be headed this way at the present time.

However, the drift toward Wilmington is only for a few weeks at most for the news of the doses administered by the Recorder will soon reach all the members of the "No-Work Club" and they will, as in the past, give this city a wide berth and seek a more congenial clime, where they may beg at will and eat and drink and be merry as the opportunity presents itself. Let a city be indifferent about the presence of hoboes and in a very short time there will be scores, or perhaps hundreds, of this class of people in its borders. But, on the other hand, if the officers bestir themselves, arrest all strangers of the tramp variety and have a judicial official to support them by giving the hoboes employment for a season, in a remarkably short time it would be difficult to find one of these itinerants within the city.

Wilmington officers are alert and cognizant of the fact that it is not well for a city to have too frequent visits from tramps and have set their nets accordingly. The Recorder, firmly of the opinion that the only way to turn the drift of the care-frees in other directions, is to provide healthy employment for them, has let it be understood that such persons brought before him will be required to do service for the county for a period of 30 days for the privilege of a few days sojourn in the city. The result will be as pointed out above. The hoboes will fight shy of this city by the sea and visit places where the officers are more hospitable to tramps. However, bad their presence may have been desired while the census enumerators were on their rounds, when, according to the figures, they were in other towns, there is no need for them in Wilmington now and their presence will not be tolerated.

A few days ago two white men, arriving here a day or two before, were in the Recorder's court to answer the charge of drunkenness and vagrancy, and were promptly given 30 days each on the roads. Yesterday there appeared two more, giving their names as Martin Bagger and Frank Johnson, and they were called to answer the same charge. The same dose was administered to them and within three hours from the time they were sentenced they had donned convict garb and doing perhaps the first real service in many months. Others hauled up before the Recorder will be dealt with in like manner.

James McNeill, Pompy Pridgen, Wm. Avery and Thomas McNeill, colored youths, were arraigned on the charge of assault and battery on Samuel Mabson, also a colored youth. Owing to the unsavory reputation of the defendants the Recorder gave them 30 days each at the county farm.

In a case against Steven Gardner, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon on another negro, the defendant was let off upon the payment of the costs.

W. A. Skeems and J. Anderson, sailors from the revenue cutter Seminole, who were assessed fines aggregating $50 each and costs for disturbing a religious meeting and cruelty to animals, have paid the amount and have been released. Hans Olsen, the other member of the trio, who was fined a like amount, expected to arrange the amount yesterday afternoon.

VESSEL TOWED INTO PORT.

Schooner Robert A. Snyder Partially Dismasted—Was Bound Here.

The schooner Robert A. Snyder, Capt. Tinker, which anchored off the Cape Fear bar Wednesday with her foremast and maintopmast gone, as a result of the recent storm, was towed into port yesterday by the tug Sea King, Capt. Edgar D. Williams, and brought up to the city last night. The Snyder has cargo of agricultural lime for the Seaboard Air Line. The schooner was sighted about three miles off the bar Wednesday apparently disabled, and tugs were sent to her assistance, but she refused to be towed in until yesterday, being unable to heave anchor during the heavy seas. Besides the damage to the vessel mentioned, several of her sails were carried away in the rough weather. The schooner came from Rockland, Me. The weather was still rough and the winds high yesterday at sea and the Sea King had difficulty in bringing the schooner across the bar.

HIGH SCHOOL DAY.

Athletic Association Gets Portion of Receipts at Joyland.

This is High School Day at Joyland, the popular motion picture theatre on Market, near Second street, and a portion of the receipts of the day will be given to the Athletic Association, which is now equipping its football team for many gridiron battle during the season. Tickets for the performances today have been in the hands of members of the association for some days and many have been disposed of, assuring a most liberal patronage. In anticipation of the day the management of Joyland has provided a special programme which will be found very attractive. Members of the association hope that their friends will visit the little theatre today.

WORK MAY BE DONE CHEAPER

United States Engineer Recommends That Bids, Opened Yesterday for River Improvement, be Not Accepted.

Bids were opened in the United States Engineer office in this city yesterday at noon for dredging in Trent river, New river, waterways from Beaufort harbor to New river and waterway from New river to Swansboro, the total amount of work contemplated costing approximately $35,000 under the bids submitted by the Miner Engineering Company, Washington, D. C., the only bidder for the work.

Capt. Earl I. Brown, engineer in charge of this district, is of the opinion that the work should be done at a much lower figure than that submitted by the bidder, and will recommend to the Chief of Engineers, Washington, D. C., that the bid be not accepted. The Chief of Engineers will doubtless be governed by the recommendation of the district engineer in passing upon the matter.

The work contemplated in Trent river consists of making a channel 50 feet wide and four feet deep at low water from Newbern to Trenton, removal of about 65,000 yards of sand and 300 yards of shell rock; in New river, to provide a channel five feet deep at low water from the mouth of the river to Jacksonville, the amount of material to be removed being estimated at 38,000 cubic yards; the work on the waterway between New river and Swansboro and between Beaufort harbor and Swansboro consists of widening the channels and removing shoals. The bids of the Miner Engineering Company were as follows: Work in Trent river, 24 cents a cubic yard for dredging and $3 for rock; New river, 18 cents for dredging and $1 for rock; Waterway from Beaufort harbor to New river, 20 cents, and waterway from New river to Swansboro, 20 cents.

MR. CHAS. E. HOOPER MANAGER.

Charlotte Man Will Have Charge of the New Hotel.

The board of directors of the Atlantis Hotel Company, which has as its purpose the erection of a handsome and commodious hotel at Wrightsville Beach, near Station No. 1, held an important meeting yesterday at noon.

Mr. Frank P. Milburn, of the firm of Milburn, Heisker & Co., of Washington, D. C., was selected as the architect of the company. Mr. Milburn, formerly of Charlotte, is one of the best known architects doing work in the South, and has recently done much work in the Piedmont section of the State, including several handsome buildings in Charlotte.

Mr. Charles E. Hooper, manager of the Buford Hotel, Charlotte, was elected manager of the hotel. He is one of the best known and most popular hotel men in the State and has great faith in the new hotel project. He believes that the hotel will pay a handsome dividend the first season it is open. It is understood some weeks ago that Mr. Hooper had made a proposition to take the management of the hotel and that it was likely to be accepted by the board of directors.

FOOTBALL THIS AFTERNOON.

Junior Baracas and Contestants for High School Team Play.

The Junior Baraca football team and the contestants for places on the High School team will play a game at League Park this afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock. Mr. H. S. Shaw, principal of the High School, will act as official refree, and Lawrence Wright will be the timekeeper. No admission will be charged and the public is cordially invited to attend. The line-up of the teams will be as follows: High School—Bob Davis, rightend; Charlie Burnett, rightackle; Hart McKoy, rightguard; John Wells, centre; Harvey Shaw, leftguard; Joel Merriman, lefttackle; Charlie Taylor, leftend; Robert Burnett, right halfback; G. Hicks, left halfback; Leonard Merriman, right fullback; Kenneth Parsley, left fullback; Will Monroe, Tom Strange and Herring, substitutes. Union—Harriss Aldermen, rightend; Virginus Hall, righttackle; Frank Miller, rightguard; Fowler Morrison, centre; Richard Myers, lefttackle; Roderick Houston, left end; Leighton Boone, right halfback; Earl Penny, left halfback; Avon Blue, right fullback; Horace Cooper, left fullback; Everett Bell and Nash Penny, substitutes.

Secures Additional Property.

Mr. Cyrus S. VanAmringe, of this city, has recently purchased two additional pieces of property, adjoining his present large holdings, at Southern Pines, the well known Winter resort. Something like $10,000 are involved in the recent acquisitions, which adjoins and will now become part of his Cumberland Court. Mr. VanAmringe has a number of cottages and larger residences on his property there and keeps a man in charge of the homes and grounds.

Meeting of Stockholders.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Seashore Hotel Company will be held in the directors' room of the Murchison National Bank next Monday, at which time Mr. E. L. Hinton, the manager, will make report of the past season's business, and matters of general interest to the stockholders will be discussed. The past season was the most successful in the history of the hostelry.

CAPE FEAR CHAPTER, U. D. C.

Regular Monthly Meeting Wednesday One of Special Interest and Importance—A Number of Matters Considered.

The October meeting of Cape Fear Chapter, U. D. C., held Wednesday afternoon, the 19th, was one of special interest and importance, being the first since the annual convention. After the usual routine matters were disposed of there were reports from the delegates, who were sent by the Chapter to the convention, which were full and explicit and told much of the work being done throughout the State by the North Carolina division, and also much that is being done by the U. D. C. as a body.

Two interesting donations to the Confederate Museum were exhibited by the committee having that room in charge; a framed picture of one of the most active of our veterans, and a Confederate gray cape belonging to one of them who has passed into the Great Beyond, both of which were received by the Chapter with grateful appreciation.

The wreath committee for the ensuing month was appointed as follows: Mrs. William Beery, Mrs. P. Q. Moore and Miss Augusta Wiggins.

The time was then given over to the proceedings of the convention, and the part taken by Cape Fear chapter. There are now 90 chapters and 34 Children's Chapters in the State, and the work they are doing in perpetuating North Carolina's part in the history during the war and just after, cannot be estimated. The monument to Henry L. Wyatt, the boy who gave his young life in volunteer duty to his country's need and was its first soldier sacrifice, will soon be erected where it may remind the children of the State what a heritage of courage theirs is. The monument to the Boy Soldiers of Chapel Hill will be unveiled in June of next year, and while all the amount is not yet in hand and the alumni of the University have not in all cases responded to the calls sent out to them to assist in this memorial, still the committee feels that they will do so before that time.

The method of obtaining funds for the monument to the Women of the Confederacy suggested by the officials of the veterans having the matter in charge, viz: "Tag Day", was overwhelmingly voted down, this being the same action as taken by Cape Fear Chapter in executive session the week before the convention, and the Daughters decided that they would leave it to the veterans to petition the Legislature for an appropriation for such a monument in this State.

There were reports from Shiloh Monument committee and from the Arlington Monument committee, and all the Chapters pledged themselves to the sale of the stamps that are to be sold to raise additional funds for the latter.

The educational report, distributing to the east, west and middle of the State all scholarships held by the Daughters, was accepted.

One of the pleasantest features of the convention, and one in which Cape Fear Chapter felt a special pride and affection, was the presentation of a jewelled pin as a gift from all Chapters in the State to their honorary president, Mrs. William M. Parsley, who in 1897 organized the State Division, having in 1893 organized the first Chapter in the State, the Cape Fear, and has always given freely of her time, her interest and her counsel to its work.

The delegates were all enthusiastic in their praise of the hospitality of the hostess city, and the lavish way in which they were entertained, and each and all of them will always remember with deepest pleasure the convention of 1910 held in 'The City on the Tar."

SPEAKING AT BURGAW.

Governor to Speak at 1 P. M.—Typographical Error Corrected.

Through an error the hour of Governor Kitchin's speaking at Burgaw for the big Democratic rally was given in yesterday morning's paper at 10 P. M., when it should have been 1 P. M. The date is Thursday, October 27th, and Chairman E. L. Larkins and Secretary R. I. Durham, of the Democratic County Executive Committee, of Pender, are arranging for a big Democratic rally on that day. In addition to the speaking there will be a big basket picnic and barbecue on the Court House square. The good ladies of Pender, as well as gentlemen are expected on that day to come out and hear the chief executive of the State and to bring well filled baskets for the dinner which will be a feature of the occasion. A fine brass band has been engaged for the music and the day promises to be a red letter one in the history of the county. The public is asked not to forget the day, Thursday, October 27th, and the hour 1 P. M.

How to Tell if Your Hair is Diseased.

Even if you have a luxuriant head of hair you may want to know whether it is in a healthy condition or not. 98 per cent. of the people need a hair tonic.

Pull a hair out of your head; if the bulb at the end of the root is white and shrunken, it proves that the hair is diseased, and requires prompt treatment if its loss would be avoided. If the bulb is pink and full, the hair is healthy.

We want every one whose hair requires treatment to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We promise that it shall not cost anything if it does not give satisfactory results. It is designed to overcome dandruff, relieve scalp irritation, to stimulate the hair roots, tighten the hair already in the head, grow hair and cure baldness.

It is because of what Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has done and our sincere faith in its goodness that we want you to try it at our risk. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co.

BODY OF ACTOR RECOVERED

Found Floating on Water at Myrtle Grove Inlet Early Yesterday Morning—Mutilated by Sharks—To Baltimore.

After being for four days subjected to the storm lashed waters of the Atlantic and the merciless attacks of sharks and crabs, the fearfully mutilated body of Mr. Robert Barton Pahr, the young actor who was drowned at Wrightsville Beach Sunday afternoon, was found yesterday morning about 6 o'clock floating on the water near Myrtle Grove Inlet, some four miles from the scene of the tragedy. Messrs. J. J. Piner and P. H. Stokley, who live in the vicinity, discovered the body.

The water was not deep at the point where the body was seen and Messrs. Piner and Stokley waded in and pulled it ashore. The body was in bad condition, in fact, with the exception of the head, which was not molested, there was nothing left but the skeleton. The arms and one foot were gone and no flesh was left except about the head as stated. Parts of the bathing suit were still around the form. It was indeed a gruesome and horrible sight. Messrs. Piner and Stokley immediately surmised that the body was that of the young actor who lost his life at Wrightsville Beach Sunday afternoon, and hastened to a telephone and informed the coroner, Dr. C. D. Bell, in this city, of the find. Dr. Bell telephoned Mr. W. E. Yopp's undertaking establishment and gave permission for the removal of the body, Mr. Marvin H. Brimmer, of the firm, went down to the sound and brought the body to the city, where it was prepared for burial, and shipped on the evening train to Baltimore, Md., where the funeral and interment will take place.

Mr. Pahr was born in Baltimore September 25th, 1883, and was therefore in the 27th year of his age. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Pahr, who reside in Baltimore. The father of the young man came here Monday night, returning on Tuesday night, and while here made all arrangements for shipment of the body in case it was found.

Strange, but true nevertheless, there were scores of ladies in Wilmington who had the morbid curiosity to want to view the remains of the young man after being taken to the undertaking establishment. Numerous telephone calls were received asking this privilege, which was, of course, denied. The body was prepared for burial as rapidly as possible and sent to the union station long before time for the train to leave owing to the persistent requests to see the body. Later in the afternoon several ladies called at the undertaker's in person and asked to view the body. When they were informed that it had already been taken to the station they appeared to be very much disappointed.

While the body was in a horrible condition, as stated above, identification was easy, the head not being molested and parts of the bathing suit he wore still encircled his form.

RURAL DEVELOPMENT.

Movement to Place Telephone in Farm Houses Meeting Success.

As a result of the campaign for Farmers' Line subscribers inaugurated by the Southern Bell Telephone & Telegraph Company, three or four days ago, and in charge of Mr. E. T. Sheftall, of the Farmer's Line Department of the company at Atlanta, Ga., one contract has been secured, covering a line between Wilmington and Middle Sound, and the indications are that several more will be secured at an early date.

There will be a mass meeting of farmers at Rocky Point, on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of considering the question of constructing a farmers' exchange at Rocky Point. Canvasser E. T. Sheftall will address the meeting and there is every indication that an exchange will be constructed. All farmers residing between Castle Haynes and Rocky Point and on the road between Montague, Long Creek and Rocky Point should not fail to attend this meeting, as the plan to place a telephone in every farmhouse is a most excellent one and should succeed.

Capt. Bogardus Again Hits the Bull's Eye.

This world's famous rifle shot who holds the championship record of 100 pigeons in 100 consecutive shots is living at Lincoln, Ill. Recently interviewed, he says: "I suffered a long time with kidney and bladder trouble and used several well known kidney medicines, all of which gave me no relief until I started taking Foley Kidney Pills. Before I used Foley Kidney Pills I had severe bachaches and pains in my kidneys and suppression and a cloudy voiding. On rising in the morning I would get dull headaches. Now I have taken three bottles of Foley Kidney Pills and feel 100 per cent. better. I am never bothered with my kidneys or bladder and again feel like my own self." Robert Bellamy.

Freckle-Face

If the Summer Brought Out Unsightly Spots, You Can Remove Them Easily.

Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots so that no one will call you freckle-face?

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength, from J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. and one night's treatment will show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion.

Now that the summer has brought its crop of freckles to most women, there is an unusual demand for Othine and in October the druggists sometimes find it difficult to get sufficient to supply all calls. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as it is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.

"The Old and the New."

For the benefit of its football team the Junior Baraca Class, of Grace Methodist Church, will give an entertainment Friday night, October 28, entitled "The Old and the New," and the idea will be developed as the entertainment progresses. During the denouncement an attractive programme, principally music, will be presented. At the conclusion of the entertainment refreshments will be served.

Interesting Lectures Continue.

There was a large congregation at the Advent Christian Church, corner Fourth and Church Streets, last night to hear the lecture of Mrs. McInstry, continuing her remarks on the Papal Church, speaking especially of its political aspect in Europe up to the time of the loss of its temparal power in 1870. Her lectures are proving entertaining and instructive to all. The public is cordially invited to attend.

LAST WEEK DAY SERVICES.

Revival at Fifth Street Methodist Church Nears an End.

The revival which has been in progress at Fifth Street Methodist church for the past ten days will come to a close Sunday and the last week day services of the series will be held this evening, when it is hoped there will be a large congregation. It is believed that the meeting has already been productive of much good and those in charge sincerely hope that others will be brought to Christ before the series come to a close. The service last night was attended by a large congregation. Rev. K. D. Holmes, the pastor, preached a strong sermon on the subject, "The Hindmost Man", and in the development of his thought showed that trust in God gives one that faith which enables him to overcome difficulties and be the hindmost man no longer. His appeal to the unsaved was very eloquent and earnest and deeply aroused the congregation. In the after-meeting, conducted by Rev. Thos. A. Smoot, pastor of Grace Church, there were two conversions and eight or ten requests for prayer. Song service tonight at 7:30 and preaching at 8 o'clock.

COMMERCIAL CLUB SUPPER.

More Than 50 Acceptances Had Been Received Last Night.

More than 50 acceptances had been received last night by Secretary J. A. McGeachy to invitations sent out a few days ago, to the Commercial Club supper, which will be held in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce this evening at 7 o'clock, and very likely many others will be received this morning. Secretary McGeachy says that it is necessary that all those who expect to attend send in their acceptances by 12 o'clock today so that ample provision may be made for them. This is the first meeting of the club, which is an auxiliary of the Chamber of Commerce, since Spring, having suspended during the Summer months, therefore many important matters will be before the body for consideration tonight, among which will be the election of a vice president to succeed Mr. R. L. Boyd, who resigned upon his departure from the city some months ago. Many matters looking to a greater Wilmington may also be brought to the attention of the body and discussed.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Richard Monroe, colored, who lives at No. 504 Latimer's alley, was discovered yesterday morning to have a full developed case of smallpox and was quarantined at his home.

—Members of Campbell Encampment, No. 1, I. O. O. F., made an official visit to Wilmington Lodge, No. 139, last night, in accordance with their recently adopted plan of visiting all the subordinate I. O. O. F. lodges in the city. There was a large attendance of members of both the camp and lodge and several interesting talks were made.

—Deeds filed for record yesterday were as follows: W. G. Sale and wife to John H. Heinze, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on east side of Eighth, 198 feet south of Orange street, 40x150 feet in size; Mother M. Gregg to Sallie L. McIntire, for $285, one-half interest in lot on south side of Meadow, 150 feet east of 10th street, 30x70 feet in size.

CAPT. WEAVER BEREAVED.

His Father Passed Away at Rocky Mount Tuesday Morning.

Many friends deeply sympathize with Capt. F. D. Weaver, a popular A. C. L. conductor, with headquarters in this city, in the death of his father, Mr. R. J. Weaver, which occurred at Rocky Mount Tuesday morning, after a brief illness of pneumonia. Mr. Weaver was 71 years old and had been in feeble health for several years. He was a member of the Christian church and a man highly esteemed by all who knew him. Surviving are his wife, one son, Capt. Weaver, of this city, and two sisters, Mrs. W. H. Batts and Miss Lavinia Weaver. The interment took place Wednesday in the family burying ground.

Did They See Airship?

A lady telephoned The Star at 6:30 o'clock last evening that she had just observed in the eastern heavens what appeared to be an airship, which was moving very rapidly in a northeasterly direction. Other telephone messages were received later from persons who had seen the object and some expressed the opinion that it was the airship America, deserted by Walter Wellman and party off the North Carolina coast a few days ago. However, yesterday's papers stated that when last seen by the officers and crew of the rescuing ship Trent the airship America was some 15 or 20 miles away with one end in the water and the captain of the boat expressed the opinion that she soon sank, dragged down by her heavy machinery. A telephone message from Wrightsville Beach was to the effect that nothing resembling an airship had been seen there during evening.

PROTEST AGAINST RAISE.

Wilmington K. of P.'s Do Not Like Increased Insurance Rate.

The opposition among local holders of policies to the plan of the endowment department of the Knights of Pythias to increase the premiums after January 1st, next, has become so pronounced that it is likely that Stonewall Lodge, at its meeting next Monday night, will enter a formal protest against the raise. Many of the older members of the order who hold policies in the endowment department say that after carrying the insurance for years, having paid out large amounts in premiums, they would be forced, in their declining years, to cancel the insurance, owing to their inability to pay the monthly premium, which in some cases will be more than trebled, it is said. The protest against the increase seems to be pretty general here and some action may be taken by Stonewall Lodge toward expressing disapproval of the raise.

THE STORM PASSES.

No Appreciable Damage and No Disasters to Shipping Reported.

The northeast storm which has been raging along the coast to the south of Wilmington, has apparently spent its fury and was last night centered north of Hatteras and abating in its fury. Aside from another high tide yesterday morning and a heavy swell at sea, this coast yesterday felt no further effects of the storm and the damage at the beach was confined to the washing away of a part of the Seashore Hotel pier, which has been told of. Although the Wilmington tugs and Cape Fear pilots were on the sharp look-out for vessels that might possibly be in distress off the coast, there were no reports of disasters off this coast up to late last night.

BANK PRESIDENT GUILTY.

Milton A. Carlisle, of Newberry, Convicted by Jury at Greenville.

Greenville, S. C., Oct. 20.—Milton Anderson Carlisle, former president of the Newberry National Bank, was today found guilty of misapplication of funds of his bank.

The defense offered no witnesses and the trial has been in progress for ten days. Mr. Carlisle is seventy years old.

A motion for a new trial will be heard on Monday.

New York, Oct. 20.—The proposed automobile race between Barney Old field and Jack Johnson, the negro champion pugilist, at Sheepshead Bay race track this afternoon, was postponed on account of heavy rain today until Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o' clock.

JONES LOST BUT CREW SAVED

Wilmington Tug Went Down in Gulf Stream During Terrible Storm—Crew Picked-Up by Steamer After Thrilling Experience.

Telegrams received yesterday from Capt. W. A. Sanders at Gulfport, Miss., to the owners here, conveyed the first information of the loss of the Wilmington tug Alexander Jones during the recent terrible storm off the Florida coast and the gratifying information of the rescue of the crew by a passing steamer, which allayed the anxiety felt here by relatives and friends for their safety.

The Jones went down in the Gulf stream in the Straits of Florida after the tug had been completely disabled. It is assumed from a second brief message from Capt. Sanders that the crew stuck by the tug until all hope of saving her had been abandoned and they were rescued only when they plunged into the sea while she was sinking. The tug is believed to have been lost in the worst of the storm some time Tuesday.

The first message from Capt. Sanders yesterday morning read as follows:

"Stone & Co., Wilmington, N. C.

"Crew all saved, house burst, foundered Florida Straits, picked-up by steamship Ennisbrook.

W. A. SANDERS."

Shortly after the receipt of the telegram the owners wired Capt. Sanders, asking if there was any chance to save the tug and the second message from Gulfport, gave an intimation of the harrowing details of their escape, as follows:

"Stone & Co., Wilmington, N. C.

"Jones sank gulf stream, saved with shirt, pants, life preserver.

W. A. SANDERS."

The steamship Enisbrook, which picked the crew up was bound from Philadelphia to Gulfport and it is presumed that the steamer stood by for several hours until the tug went down and then effected the rescue.

Besides Capt. Sanders, who owned an interest in the Jones, there were aboard when she sank, Capt. Fred Dosher, of Southport, and other members of the crew as follows: Joe Deleman, engineer, formerly of Beaufort, N. C.; engineer, name unknown, from Jacksonville, Fla.; two colored firemen, Norphus Bellamy, and David Bellamy, and Jim Green, the cook, also colored, all of Wilmington.

The tug was bound from Jacksonville, Fla., to Key West, to tow the distressed schooner Edward T. Stotesbury to Baltimore and it was her first sea trip since she towed the schooner Carrie A. Norton from Kingston, Jamaica, to New York. She ran into the first storm on last Saturday after being at sea since Wednesday week and then encountered the hurricane the first of this week.

The Alexander Jones had an enviable sea-going record and was the first large iron-hull tug built at Baltimore. The tug was 33 years old, having been been built in the year 1877, but about two years ago she was re-built. She was first owned by Capt. John T. Harper and for many years was in the service on the Cape Fear river. Capt. Harper later sold her to the river pilots and about eight years ago she was acquired by the Wilmington Towing Company. She was valued at between $30,000 and $35,000. She was a little more than half insured.

In the past few years she has been used for making long sea trips, while the Blanche, owned by the same company, took her place towing on the Cape Fear. She was engaged in river towing in New York harbor Summer before last and last Summer did towing on the St. John's river in Florida. She was 134 gross tons, and 108 feet long. During recent years she has made several perilous sea trips and has weathered many a storm in safety.

Capt. Sanders, Capt. Dosher and the crew will probably arrive home from Gulfport Saturday morning. The Wilmington Towing Company is composed of the Messrs. Stone Brothers, Capt. W. A. Sanders and Mr. W. A. Rourk. The marine insurance is carried by the company in Philadelphia.

Loss of Jones.

The following by Associated Press was received last night:

Gulfport, Miss., Oct. 20.—After battling against the storm for five days and nights in the Florida straits, the British steamer Annisbrook arrived here today having on board Captain W. A. Sanders and a crew of eight men, rescued Friday from the seagoing tug Alexander Jones. They were saved as the tug was going off Fowey Rock Light, 12 miles from Key West.

ALLEGED SMUGGLERS HELD.

Accused of Helping Chinese Enter This Country Illegally.

Biloxi, Miss., Oct. 20.—Following the overruling yesterday of a demurrer filed by their attorneys, eight defendants went to trial in the Federal court here today, charged with smuggling Chinese into the United States along the Mississippi coast.

The men on trial are Nick Strakatos, now serving a term in the Fort Leavenworth prison for smuggling Chinese across the Texas border, and seven other Greeks, three Chinamen and John Lyons, a former immigration official at this port.

Cottolene

is enjoyed by all the family without fear of future disaster

There are two kinds of doughnuts—

There's the lard-laden doughnut that is heavy, soggy and lies like lead in the stomach—that's the old-fashioned kind. Steer clear of it; it's the lard that makes it indigestible, not the cook.

Then there's the crisp, flaky, richly browned doughnut, that almost melts in your mouth, yet without the suspicion of greasiness. This kind is made with Cottolene, a vegetable product that makes food that even a child can digest with ease.

You never knew real doughnut goodness until you try the kind made with Cottolene.

Cottolene is much purer and more wholesome than lard.

Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed

Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk

Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

AT THE THEATRES.

Another fine performance was given at the Academy last night by Starkey's Players, who have grown to be big favorites in Wilmington. Tonight the company is to present its big feature play, which it always saves for its Friday night performance in every city. The play is one for which the company has all Southern rights and pays a big royalty. It is the sensational drama, "The Man and the Brute," and Starkey's Players give it a wonderful scenic presentation. The cast that will be seen in the bill is a strong one. Between acts a new line of specialties will be introduced.

Tomorrow afternoon the company will give a special matinee for the ladies and children, and will close its engagement tomorrow night. The matinee prices will be 10 and 20 cents.

A Big Event.

Music lovers here are showing considerable interest in the coming of the Aborn English Grand Opera Company to the Academy of Music for one night only, Tuesday, October 25th Grand Opera is a form of musical diversion that we get none too much of, and grand opera in English especially will be most welcome. For their engagement here, the Aborn management have made a most happy selection in deciding to present Verdi's most familiar and popular opera, "Il Trovatore," one of the greatest favorites of all classic works. From all reports, this organization has been unplicating on this, its first tour, the remarkable success it has enjoyed for the past decade in its long engagements each year in New York, Boston, Philadelphia, Chicago, and a few other large cities to which it has confined its past presentations.

Crystal Palace.

The popular mid-week change of programme went on at the Crystal Palace yesterday and the large audiences at each performance were greatly pleased with the offering. The bill this week, while largely musical, is one of the best this season. Miss Eleanor Warren, the fascinating little song-bird, has one of the best voices ever heard on the vaudeville stage in this city, and she is very fetching in her manner. Miss Gibson, the clever soubrette, continues to win liberal applause, and the Great Stanley, who has a splendid voice, wins high praise from the audiences.

At the Bijou Today.

"The Man Who Learned" and "The Sepoy's Wife," are the titles of the pictures that will be shown at the Bijou theatre today. The former is dramatic and educational, telling a story of the milk supply of a great city, produced in co-operation with the New York Milk Committee, while the latter is one that gets away from the hackneyed and includes the go and stir that makes a great play.

At Joyland.

This is High School Day at this little theatre, the manager having turned the house for this day over to the young ladies and young gentlemen of the school. A special programme has been arranged, consisting of "Reunited by Santa Claus" and "For a Western Girl," being the features. A box of candy will be given to the person holding the lucky number. The theatre opens from 2:30 to 11 P. M.

Not For Men

To Get Relief

When a woman's nervous and physical systems are tired out—worn out—they need something more than mere food, to refresh them.

They need medicines—tonic, herb products, which act as Nature planned they should do, in helping along the functions of life, when ordinary methods fail.

Cardui is not for men. There are many good medicines and tonics for men—but Cardui is only for women—its ingredients and its action make it so.

We know what Cardui will do for tired, worn-out, sick, miserable women, because we know what it has done. What it has done for others, it will surely do for you.

Cardui can be depended upon to help you, if you will give it a fair trial. Consisting only of pure, vegetable ingredients, it has nothing harmful in its composition, but acts, gently, and in a natural way, upon the womanly organs, and has been found, in thousands of cases, to restore sick women to health, after other medicines had failed.

Mrs. Margaret L. Pheral, of Newburg, Ind., writes: "I had sick headache, continuous hurting in my side; was always tired, and, every month, had such pains, I could hardly stand. I was treated by the best doctors in our town for more than a year, without any help. At last, I took Cardui, and it worked wonders. Before I had taken one bottle, I felt better. Now I feel better than in two years, and owe it all to Cardui."

Try Cardui, it will help you. Sold by 40,000 druggists. Get a bottle today.

DECLINE IN COTTON MARKET

Turned Weak After Forenoon Rally and Heavy Realization by Bull Operators—Unfavorable Weather Reports.

New York, Oct. 20.—Unfavorable weather reports were again offset as an immediate factor by continued heavy realizing attributed to large bull operators and after a forenoon rally the cotton market turned weak, closing barely steady at a net decline of 11 to 18 points for the day.

The market opened steady at a decline of 6 to 11 points and during the early trading sold off to a net loss of 9 to 15 points under liquidation or local bear pressure inspired by lower cables than expected, the failure of the early map to show any frost in the western belt and a feeling that the South Atlantic storm had hugged the coast too closely to do much damage in the interior. There were some reports of damage to open cotton from Georgia and the Carolinas, however, and shortly after the opening here a report reached the trade that it was snowing at Amarillo, Texas, with the temperature down to 30 degrees. This started a fresh weather scare and from the early low point, the market rallied sharply with the near months selling a point or two above the closing figures of last night while later months went up to a net gain of 6 to 8 points; but the western belt forecast indicated that the lower temperatures tonight would be followed by warmer weather tomorrow, the South Alantic storm was evidently passing out of the belt and when it was found that important other bull interests continued heavy sellers, early buyers lost their confidence and the market broke very sharply. At a net decline of about 16 to 23 points offerings for long account became less urgent and the market rallied several points on covering, but the buying lacked snap and closing prices were not far up from the lowest. It was rumored that the National Ginners' Association's preliminary reports indicated 5,600,000 bales ginned to October 18. Last year the census bureau reported 5,530,000 bales ginned to the corresponding date. Southern spot markets were 18c lower to 1-8c higher.

Receipts at the ports today 56,900 against 59,607 last week and 54,000 last year; for the week 400,000 bales against 405,117 last week and 448,254 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 9,729 bales against 10,770 bales last year.

Spot closed quiet, unchanged. Middling uplands 14.45; middling gulf 10.70; sales 3,765 bales. Futures opened steady and closed barely steady.

MOST ERRATIC MARKET.

Frosts Expected in Oklahoma and Panhandle of Texas.

(Specail Star Telegram.)

New York, Oct 20.—Killing frost has not as yet followed the cold wave of last night though it is expected that a frost will occur in sections of Oklahoma and possibly the Panhandle of Texas tonight. These conditions and the further liquidation by those who have been the leaders during the past advance, produced a most erratic market today, a condition which seems likely to continue until the results of the cold wave are known. The reason for the liquidation by the bulls appears to be a growing belief that the crop will turn out larger than expected and that the present cold wave is the cold spell which we frequently experience during the last week in September. We think the large holders are about out; whether they will return will depend, as does the market, upon the weather. Without a frost the market will be apt to slowly decline. HUBBARD BROS. & CO.

SOME ACTIVITY IN STOCKS

Dealings of Professional Element Feature of Market Yesterday—Advance in Discount Rate of Bank of England.

New York, Oct. 20.—The advance in the official discount rate of the Bank of England being the event which was anticipated in the decline of prices in stocks yesterday found little left to do in the way of precautionary sales when announced today. The evidence that the event had been adequately discounted in the stock market prompted a return by the professional element in the speculation to the long side of the market again.

The dealings in the renewed upturn of prices was congested even more than usual in United State Steel. The action of that stock begot the suspicion that the new movement represented a change in the auspices under which the market operations were conducted. On that account, partly, there was some holding aloof from the new buying movement. Broadening of the demand the last hour into the railroad stocks corrected the earlier narrowness of the movement.

The rise in United States Steel placed it well above the previous level touched on the present movement, and, in fact, above any price touched since the last week in June.

The potent factors in the immediate movement which carried United States Steel today to 79 undoubtedly were the crop conditions disclosed by the October Government report and the report referred to by the Iron Age today that "prominent railroad officials have advised steel manufacturers in the past week that a much more liberal policy in placing orders for equipment is to be expected after the election next month, especially if financial conditions become easier."

The 5 per cent. discount rate established by the Bank og England today may cause a question of easier financial conditions. The question of the efficiency of the money market resources to carry through a further active advance in stocks was the cause of the degree of reserve shown towards the fresh outbreak of speculative operations today.

International exchanges all turned in favor of London in response to the caution of the Bank of England. The call money market in New York was unaffected. Pronounced dullness in the discounting of commercial paper is a feature of the money market.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales par value $2,918,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today were 889,500 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, October 20.—Anxiety of export concerns to get as much grain to tidewater as possible before an advance in rail rates, November 1, was instrumental today in hoisting the price of wheat. Another cause was the renewal of assertions that rain came too late in Northwestern Argentine and that crop damage there is irreparable. The close was strong at an advance of 7-8 to 3-8 a gain of 1-2 to 5-8 over last night, was scored by corn, and 3-8 to 1-2 to 1-2 to 5-8 by oats. Provisions made a ragged finish—a dime up to a quarter of a dollar decline.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Cash close: Wheat No. 2 red, 94 1-8 to 95 3-4; No. 3 red, 92 to 94; No. 2 hard, 94 1-2 to 97 1-2; No. 3 hard, 92 to 95; No. 1 northern, 1.06 to 1.08; No. 2 northern, 1.00 to 1.05; No. 2 spring, 98 to 1.05; No. 3 spring, 95 to 1.03; velvet chaff 90 to 1.00; durum, 82 to 91.

JAMESTOWN EXPOSITION SUIT.

Judge Waddill Overruled Demurrer in Action to Recover.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 20.—Federal Judge Edmund Waddill, Jr., today overruled a demurrer going to the root of the general action now pending in the Jamestown Exposition litigation by which the exposition receivers are suing to recover on many delinquent stock subscriptions. Today's demurrer was to the effect that the bill could not stand as against defendants because it did not recite that before the Jamestown Exposition Company ever became a corporation under the law of Virginia, it was necessary that it have January 1st, 1904 as much as $1,000,000 in stock subscriptions "collectible in law"; and that if the bill did recite it was incumbent upon the plaintiffs to prove that the company did have before January 1st 1904, as much as $1,000,000 in stock subscriptions "collectible in law."

MILLION FOR Y. M. C. A. WORK.

Part Given by Rockfeller For World-Wide Movement.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Contributions of one million dollars for the world-wide expansion of the Young Men's Christian Association $540,000 of which was given by John D. Rockfeller, were announced today at the conference of Young Men's Christian Workers in the East room of the White House.

President Taft addressed the delegates and heartily endorsed the organization. Rockefeller's gift tendered on the condition that a like amount be raised, was met by contributions from many laymen interested in the movement, among them John Wanamaker.

Mr. Wanamaker offered to erect another building in China in addition to five foreign association buildings already given by him.

The subject of the conference was that of an extension of the movement into the Far East, the near East and to Latin America. More than 200 laymen from 21 States and Canada were present and was welcomed by President Taft, who gave the expansion project his earnest approval and pledged it his active support.

Dr. John R. Mitt, general secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation, outlined a programme for expansion of the movement. The plan involves the addition of 50 experts in the Far East during the next three years to direct the policy, the erection of 49 buildings in ten nations to provide proper equipment for such expansion and $1,515,000 in money to cover the cost of the equipment.

The countries to be benefitted include the Philippines, Japan, Korea, China, India and Ceylon, Russia, Turkey, Porto Rico, Cuba and Portugal.

Major General Leonard Wood, in addressing the laymen, commended the work of the association in Havana and Manila as valuable allies in making plain and unselfish duties of America in those countries. Among other speakers were John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, and Melville E. Stone, general manager of the Associated Press.

CONFESSED TO ESCAPE MOB.

Kentucky Murderer Sentenced During Funeral of His Victim.

Jackson, Ky., Oct. 20.—Accepting sentence of death by electrocution rather than face probable hanging at the hands of a mob, Charles Little today pleaded guilty in court to the murder of Mathew Crawford, who was ambushed at his distillery near Jackson Tuesday night.

Tonight Little is in jail at Lexington, whither he was rushed under guard immediately after sentence was passed on him.

The judicial proceedings against Little were the shortest on record in Kentucky. Warned that Crawford's friends had planned to lynch him after Mrs. Little had told the officers that her husband killed the distiller, the prisoner confessed and asked for an immediate trial.

The Crawford adherents were attending the dead man's funeral and knew nothing of the court proceedings. The circuit court being in session, a jury was at once impanelled and Little pleaded guilty. Six minutes later he was sentenced to death.

Mountaineers who had followed Judge James Hargis, Crawford's uncle when the feudist was in his glory, flocked to Jackson late yesterday and last night. Assembled in a darkened store room, they discussed the killing and heard the story of V. G. Mulliken, of Lexington, who with bloodhounds, had tracked Little after the murder.

Mulliken related the confession of Mrs. Little who had told Mulliken that the prisoner killed Crawford because the distiller refused to give him whis key. The feudists had planned to hang Little and by torture force a statement revealing the names of his supposed confederates. The first reports of the killing were that three men and a woman were concerned.

Assured that only Little was responsible, the mountaineers dispersed from the meeting in the dark, but carried their arms openly about the streets today and let it be known that speedy punishment must be the lot of Little.

The confession and sentencing of the culprit followed and tonight the town is quiet.

at noon, many of these present munching away at lunches and drinking coffee.

An extra territorial incident of the game occurred in Judge Scanlon's court. The judge having ascertained that the members of his jury were more interested in the game than in the case at bar, sought to right matters by having the score by innings read to them by a bailiff. This worded well until the news of the defeat of the locals came in. Some of the jurors looked so melancholy that the court dismissed the panel for the day, explaining that in the circumstances it seemed impossible for the jury to spare enough attention from the game and its result to hear any more evidence.

Worse weather was predicted for tomorrow, in a special baseball forecast issued tonight. It reads:

"Friday, continued unsettled, probably rain in the morning. Cold and misty during the afternoon."

Quaker City Fans Wild.

Philadelphia, Oct. 20.—The news from Chicago that the Athletics had taken the first game from the Cubs on their own grounds, thus giving the Philadelphia team its third straight victory in the series for the world's championship, was received here with wild enthusiasm by the fans. The average Philadelphia baseball rooter believes that the battle for the world's title is practically over and look for the crafty Mack to send in the equally crafty Bender tomorrow to hold down the National League Champions while his team mates bat out another victory.

The series has the big city by the ears. There appeared to be more excitement about the central sections of the city than when the teams played here.

Seats for the game on Saturday if one is necessary and if played here, were put on sale today and the demand was as great as for the first two games. Hundreds of people stood in the rain waiting their turns to purchase the pasteboards.

THE STATE FAIR.

Weather More Ideal Yesterday—Agricultural Exhibits Great.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 20.—The State Fair management and the people of Raleigh were most agreeably amazed today at the great throngs of people who began pouring into the city bright and early for the fair events in spite of the threatening weather conditions.

Regular and special trains from every direction were well laden with people. Very little rain fell during the day and there is a general aspect of clearing conditions so that the plan of the State Fair management to run right along full blast through Friday and Saturday will be carried through with the result that the attendance for this fair will most probably break all previous records in spite of the terrible handicap of weather thus far. Had there been the usual "fair weather" that the management has enjoyed for so many years, phenominally large crowds would have poured into the city from the most remote parts of the State.

The part that the State Department of Agriculture has taken in the 1910 State Fair is most notable both in the way of tempting cash premiums for agricultural products and in actual department exhibits showing the varied endeavors the divisons are making for the furtherance of improved methods of farming and protecting the people from imposition through adulteration of products.

The only pick pocket arrest thus far in conection with the State Fair is W. H. Hamilton, claiming to be a travelling man from Richmond. He is in jail, in default of $300 bond for Superior court. Letters he has indicated that he operates also as William Tolliver and has recently been in Boston and Montreal, Canada. He was caught taking a purse from W. M. Pittman, of Selma, having passed it to a confederate who escaped with it and $10 it contained.

Atlanta, Ga., October 20.—Southern horses were the features of the horse show matinee at the auditorium armory this afternoon, the entries of D. N. McCullough, of Atlanta, capturing first prizes in all the events in which they appeared. Miss Atlanta, the mule owned by T. J. Turner, which was the Georgian cup winner last year, captured the trophy again today in the draft mules class.

ANOTHER BALLOON LANDS.

Helvetia Went 1,100 Miles From St. Louis.—Features.

St. Louis, Oct. 20.—Colonel Theodore Schaeck, piloting the Swiss balloon Helvetia, which started in the international race on Monday, landed at Ville Marie, Quebec, 1,100 miles from St. Louis, late today, according to a message received by the Aero Club, of St. Louis, tonight.

This is not thought to be the balloon sighted at Kiss-Kissink, Canada, 1,200 miles from St. Louis today, if the reports are correct, the American record of 873.4 miles has been much exceeded.

The other three balloons, which are believed to have landed in Canada, but have not yet reported, are the Swiss balloon Azurea, Lieutenant Messner, pilot; the German balloon Dusseldorf II., Lieutenant Hans Gericke, pilot, and the America II., A. R. Hawley, pilot. All the other balloons were accounted for previously.
